The Future of the Source

A.D. LATORNELL
CONSERVATION SYMPOSIUM

November 16 – 18, 2011
Nottawasaga Inn, Alliston, ON

2011 Program at a Glance

WATER: THE FUTURE OF THE SOURCE

We need to ensure we have enough clean, sustainable water sources for all our uses – for technologies, a resilient environment and for all of us individually. Delegates at this year's A.D. Latornell Conservation Symposium will discuss Ontario's water issues in the context of climate change, future demands, relationship of natural and built infrastructure and how it all relates to human health and water management.
